Golden Wedding Day Will Be Observed Reception For All

An anniversary of unusual interest will take place here Tuesday, June 13 when Mr. and Mrs. Ambert G. Moody celebrate their golden wedding. Mr. Moody, a nephew of D. L. Moody, who founded the Northfield Schools, has been associated with the institution since the day it opened in 1879 and Mrs. Moody was one of the early graduates.

A reception for the friends and family will be held from three to five and eight to 10 p. m. at the Northfield Hotel, of which Mr. Moody was manager for 40 years. No formal invitations have been issued but all will be welcomed.

Among the other official posts Mr. Moody has filled during his 65 year association with the Northfield Schools are: clerk of the board of trustees, assistant treasurer, and business manager of the Northfield Summer Conferences. He retired from active duty a few years ago but still retains membership on the board of trustees.

He graduated from Mount Hermon in 1888 and from Amherst college in 1892. In college he was a member of Sigma Upsilon fraternity and has been treasurer of his class since graduation. During his school and college days Mr. Moody retained his connection with the business affairs of the institution and while at Amherst returned each week-end to take care of hotel and conference correspondence.

Chairman of the district draft board during the first World War, he has served as director of the First National Bank and Trust Co. and of the Franklin Savings Institution, of Greenfield, and has long been identified with the Congregational church locally and throughout the state.

Mrs. Moody was born Frances G. Wells in Dover, Ill., where her grandparents went in 1840 from New York state to settle on the virgin sod of the prairie. Her parents, Henry G. and Mary Arnold Wells, like so many other mid-westerners with roots in the east sent their daughter to New England for her education. She entered Northfield Seminary in 1888, graduated in 1891 and graduated from Wellesley in 1895.

Like her husband Mrs. Moody is prominent in Congregational church circles and has for many years been secretary of the Northfield Seminary Students' Aid Society. She has also served as president of the Alumnae association.

Mr. and Mrs. Moody were married June 13, 1894 at the bride's home in Illinois, and early the next year moved into their present home, which is one of the town's landmarks. Although their winters are now spent in the south the Moody's still occupy their Northfield residence each summer and take an active part in school, community, and church life.

The reception next Tuesday is being given by Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon Moody, son and daughter-in-law of the couple. The young Moody succeeded his father as manager of the Northfield Hotel.

Will Be Promoted

Taylor and Principal Leonard will announce the special awards. A musical and dramatic production by Mrs. Esther Leonard will be provided. The class colors are blue and gold. The high school graduation will be next week.

Form A Cub Pack For Young Boys Here

A "cub pack" has been formed in this town with Charles Olds of Winchester Road as Cubmaster and it has been given a charter and number 49. The organization was prompted and sponsored by the Grange and a committee of Emory Rikert, Mrs. Bernard Whitney and Lawrence Ferris was named to take charge. Mrs. Frederick Chapin, Mrs. William Potter, Mrs. L. R. Kirk and Mrs. W. B. Wells are the den mothers at whose residences the groups will meet. The den chiefs are Scouts Goddard Winterbottom, David Quinn and Gordon Leavis. The new organization will have the support of the local Boy Scout Council and officials. The charter and certificates were presented by Orson Smith of Northampton at the Grange hall at the institution meeting on last Thursday in the presence of the many "cubs" and their parents and friends.

The Unitarian Church

On Sunday, 10:45 a. m. Children and Flowers Sunday will be observed. The children of the Church school directed by Mrs. Carroll Miller will present a program of music and readings. Rev. Arthur Heeb, minister, will give a sermonette and lead in a service of dedication. Mrs. L. P. Goodspeed, organist and choir leader. A feature will be a display of potted begonia plants, given to each member of the school at Easter, and now used in decorating the pulpit. Souvenir pictures of the church will be given to each boy or girl enrolled in the school. His service will close the school program until September. A cordial welcome is extended to all parents and friends of the parish.

On Saturday at 3 p. m. a children's party will be held in the vestry. There will be games and music and refreshments to which children of the school and neighboring friends are invited.

The Conferences For This Summer Provide Much Interest And Attractions Optimism For Their Success Prevails

Founded by D. L. Moody in 1880, the Northfield Summer Conferences have exerted a profound influence on the religious life of America. The original gathering was described as "a convocation for prayer", later as the Northfield Bible Conference, and finally as the Northfield General Conference, the name it bears today. Other gatherings devoted to various phases of Christian activities for adults and young people have been added to form the present group of Northfield Conferences, all of which are endeavoring to further the Kingdom of God on earth. Northfield, with its outstanding summer program and unexcelled recreational facilities, offers ideal vacation opportunities to the minister, the layman and the Christian family.

The first scheduled conference this season is that of the Northfield Girls Conference which will begin on June 15th and continue to the 22nd.

This Conference which returns to the campus after a year's absence, is an interdenominational gathering for girls of secondary school and college ages and welcomes all who wish to join in the quest for life's fullest meaning.

The program, which is planned to help girls to apply the principles of Christ and Christian living to the problems of the world in which they live, includes Interest Groups, Bible Classes, a Worship Period, and provision is made for Sports and Recreation.

Speakers will include Mrs. Harper Sibley, President, The Northfield League; Dr. Albert T. Mollen, Professor of New Testament and Christian Ethics, Virginia Seminary; The Reverend George Cadigan, Grace Church, Salem, Mass.; The Reverend Howard L. Rubendall, First Presbyterian Church, Albany, N. Y.; and other outstanding Christian leaders chosen for their understanding of the needs of young people.

The Christian Endeavor Conference will be held from June 28 to July 5. This conference brings together young people from all sections of Massachusetts and the surrounding states for a week of inspiration, study, and fellowship. Through this experience delegates are equipped to assume positions of leadership in the local church and community.

Mornings are devoted to devotional services and class room work; afternoons to rest, study and recreation; sunset time to Vespers and evenings to meetings in which the delegates have a share.

In connection with the regular conference, the North Atlantic Region of the International Society of Christian Endeavor will hold a special conference. This will include leaders from the New England States and New York State, and will be under the supervision of Mr. Ernest S. Marks, Field Secretary for the International Society.

The morning chapel speaker will be the Reverend Benjamin Browne, General Secretary Pennsylvania Baptist Convention; and the Conference Dean will be the Reverend Horace G. Robson, pastor Village Congregational Church, Whitinsville, Mass.

The Northfield Missionary Conference will be in session, July 6-14. This conference is a project for bringing together Christian women of all denominations, for Worship, Bible Study, and a Survey of the vitally important field of Missions. It is a joint Conference for women and girls with separate classes for each group.

The program consists of classes in Bible, Missions, Church Methods, and Music, as well as of worship services and inspirational meetings. Opportunities are provided for recreation, rest, and fellowship.

Among the speakers and leaders will be: Dr. Henry Smith Leiper, Dr. William E. McCormack, Dr. Emily J. Werner, Miss Ruth Babcock, Miss Mary Louise Pardee and others.

The Religious Education Conference convenes and is in session July 17-26. The program of this joint conference is designed to provide trained leadership for the churches and to give an experience of worship and fellowship for young people and adults of all denominations. A new feature will be a series of laboratory schools for teachers of children, junior high and high school young people. Training will also be provided for all types of workers in weekday church schools.

Among the instructors will be Dr. Joseph L. McCoslin, New England Secretary of the National Conference of Christians and Jews; Mrs. E. E. McClintock, of Chicago, National Secretary of Women's Work of the Congregational Christian Churches; Miss Doris P. Denison of the National Board of Education of the Methodist Church and Rabbi Abraham J. Feldman of Hartford, Connecticut.

The Northfield General Conference will be held August 6-13. These are eventful days. The Conference returns to the campus this summer after two seasons at The Chateau, where a war-time program was offered.

The 1944 program will retain some of the features used at The Chateau sessions and the Conference period will be shortened to eight days. Accommodations will be available in the dormitories and the recreational and cultural facilities of the school will be at the disposal of guests.

The speakers have been selected with a view to their understanding of the problems of Christian leadership in war-time and in the post-war world, and their ability to share their understanding with others.

Among the distinguished Christian leaders who will take part in the program are:

Dr. Adam W. Burnet, St. Cuthbert's Church, Edinburgh, Scotland; Dr. Harris E. Kirk, Franklin Street Church, Baltimore, Maryland; Dr. Paul D. Moody, Associate Minister, First Presbyterian Church, New York City; Dr. Reinhold Niebuhr, Professor of Applied Christianity, Union Theological Seminary; Dr. William E. Park, President of The Northfield Schools; Dr. Paul Scherer, The Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Holy Trinity, New York City; Dr. John C. Schroeder, Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology, Yale University; Dr. Amos N. Wilder, Professor of New Testament Interpretation, Chicago Theological Seminary.

Indications point to a successful summer conference season this summer. Summer residents are coming to occupy their cottages and reservations at the Hotel, Inns and boarding houses are being made.

Seminary To Graduate At Its Commencement Program Arranged

Diplomas will be granted to 156 girls at Northfield Seminary's sixty-first commencement, scheduled for the coming weekend. Dr. Mira B. Wilson, the principal, will deliver the Baccalaureate address Sunday morning, and Dr. William E. Park, president of the Northfield Schools, will give the address at the commencement exercises Monday morning at 10:30 in Russell Sage Chapel.

Other events on the program are as follows: Saturday, at 2 p. m. Swimming Exhibition; 4 p. m., last Chapel Service; and 8-10 p. m., informal reception to graduates and their guests at Miss Wilson's home. Sunday at 7:30 a. m., Communion Service; 8 p. m., a recital by Edouard Nies-Berger, organist of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra in Russell Sage Chapel; and 9:30 p. m., Lantern Service on Chapel Hill.

On July 1 Northfield Seminary will adopt the new name, The Northfield School for Girls, recently approved by the trustees of The Northfield Schools.

TOWN TOPICS

If these persons, if living, or one of their heirs, will get in touch with the Editor of this paper, I have some valuable information: Ralph H. Spencer, Fred C. Britton, Clifford H. Chamberlin and Maggie Kiely. Were about in 1903.

It is probable that a very special meeting of the Rustic Ridge Association will be held shortly and notices will be sent out to all members.

Rev. and Mrs. Loring B. Chase have arrived at their summer residence in the Highlands to spend the summer. Rev. Mr. Chase preached at the Metcalf Memorial chapel in Warwick last Sunday.

Members of the Eastern Star are to give an Old Folks concert in the town hall on Wednesday evening, June 28th and active preparations are under way now with several rehearsals planned.

The Board of Registrars will sit at the Town Hall on Wednesday, June 21st from noon till ten o'clock in the evening to meet all persons who desire to become voters. This is the last opportunity to enroll before the primaries.

You will need a new auto tax stamp for your automobile before July first which cost $5 and may be had at the various postoffices on and after the 10th of June. It must be displayed on the windshield.

Mrs. William F. Hoehn has returned here after a visit of several weeks in New Jersey with relatives. Her sister Miss Ethel Lawrence accompanied her on the trip home and will reopen her cottage in Mountain Park.

Gives Organ Recital Sunday Evening At 8 In Sage Chapel

The musical feature is a traditional part of the Northfield Commencement and this year will be no exception. The school has been fortunate in securing the services of a foremost artist, Edouard Nies-Berger, official organist of the N. Y. Philharmonic Orchestra, who will give a recital next Sunday at 8 p. m. in Russell Sage Chapel.

Edouard Nies-Berger, born in Strasburg, France, received his early musical training from his father, Charles Nies-Berger, Alsatian organist and conductor. At the age of twelve, he became assistant organist at the Temple Reformed, the Huguenot Church.

Among his formative experiences were the recitals given by his fellow countryman and friend, Dr. Albert Schweitzer, on the historic Silbermann organ—dating from the time of Bach—at St. Thomas Church. At one time Edouard Nies-Berger played the organ at St. Nicolai Church which Dr. Schweitzer officiated as pastor.

After attending courses at the Municipal Conservatory of Music at Strasburg, he pursued his musical studies in Milan, Salzburg and Vienna. After a brilliant debut in Chicago in 1929 he settled in America and became an American citizen. Today Edouard Nies-Berger is recognized as an organ virtuoso of first rank. He has given recitals from coast to coast.

In 1941 the American Guild of Organists presented him as recitalist in the National Convention of Organists in Washington, D. C. and in 1942 at St. Bartholomew's Church, New York. He has appeared as soloist with the National Orchestral Association, and other leading orchestras.

His flair for the baton and his musical temperament attracted him to the Symphony orchestra. He has conducted important orchestras in Europe before discriminating audiences and critics with outstanding success.

DO YOU KEEP Old Bills?

MAYBE in cleaning house this spring you ran across some old bills. Sometimes they bring back memories and make mighty interesting reading. Take your electric bill, for instance. If you are an average family, you'll find that you were paying about twice as much for electricity in 1927 as you do today. The amount of the bill may be the same, but you were using about half as much electricity. Most people don't realize that. But it's true. Electricity is selling today at pre-war prices, the lowest in history.

Life jacket nearly torn from his body by cross fire from enemy bombers, Clyde Neil Andrews, Second Mate, Merchant Marine, fought back from the bridge of his ship with a .30 caliber machine gun without protective shielding. Later the ship was torpedoed and sunk. With exceptional skill and courage he moved injured men into lifeboats; he wears the Distinguished Service Medal. THIS WAR IS NOT YET WON. We at home have only begun to feel the weight of our debt to our fighting men . . . to the living—to the wounded—yes, above all, to the dead. Ours is the responsibility to work, to save, to buy all the War Bonds we can, to smooth the road they must travel that the journey may be made swiftly and the end reached soon.

NO, OUR WAR HAS JUST STARTED—and the sooner we accept all our responsibilities, the sooner it will be won. Out on some bloody battlefield, a boy you know may live to fight on to final Victory if you do your part here at home.

Your part, in addition to whatever else you are doing, is lending your money to help pay the tremendous costs of war.

Here are five more reasons for buying extra War Bonds in the Fifth War Loan:

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds (series E) return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

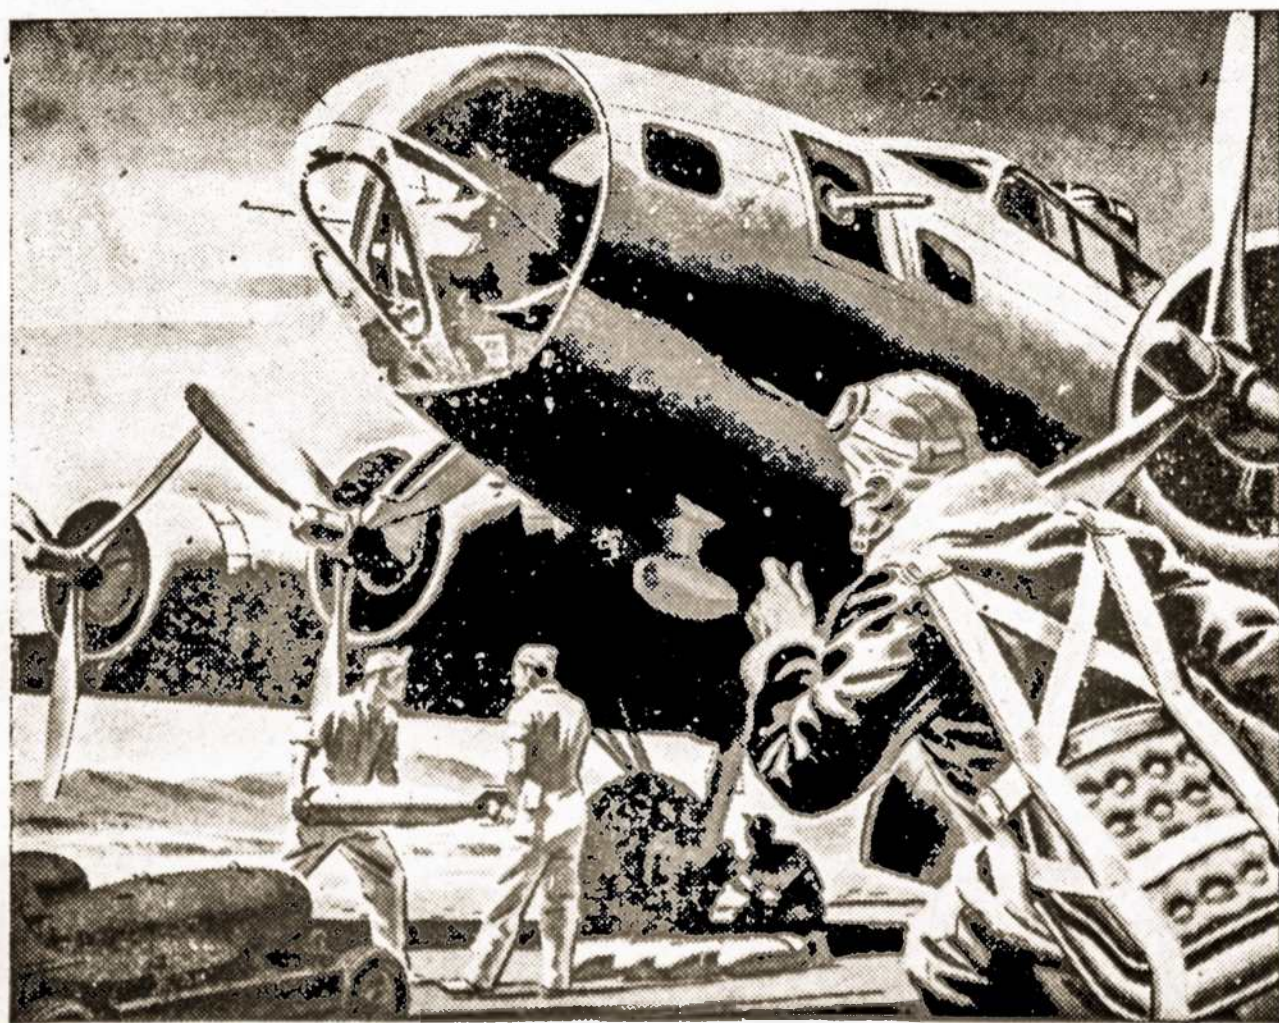

Wounded in the back by a shell fragment from heavy enemy submarine fire, Charles Richardson, Able Seaman, Merchant Marine, went to the rescue of two severely wounded Navy members when the abandon ship order was given. During the rescue he defended himself and his helpless companions from sharks. He was able to save one of the crew and himself. Decrease the dangers of these men; buy War Bonds and hold 'em.

U. S. Treasury Department

When war broke out, Marino Sgt. Maier J. Rothschild of New York City was studying journalism at night, selling stocks in Wall Street daytimes. On December 31, 1941, 24 days after Pearl Harbor, he enlisted. He's been awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received in hand to hand bayonet combat, and the Navy Cross for fighting off and killing 95 out of 150 of the enemy storming a machine-gun emplacement. He's not giving up until we win. And you? Are you still buying that extra War Bond?

HE'S OFF ON HIS FIFTY-FIFTH MISSION

There he goes again—out to pour more destruction on the Axis—once more to face the death of enemy fighters and flak!

He won't hesitate to go out on his fifty-sixth or his hundred and fifty-sixth mission. He knows he might not come back, but he keeps on going—giving more and more until the Hitler and

Tojo crews are ready to "call it quits."

This is only your fifth mission—and a mission which is mighty easy in comparison with the ones he makes every week.

Stay in the fight by welcoming the Victory Volunteers—at least double your Bond purchases and then keep on. Your buying means "bombs away" for the Axis!

To the People of this Community

This is a home front communique on the most vital war action now in progress in every community of the land—the Fifth War Loan.

We are advancing on our objective. However, we must make certain that we reach and pass our goal by July 8. This can be done if every one of us puts something extra of ourselves into the fight.

No one needs to remind you that it is an American trait to go into a sprint with the goal in sight. We started this push June 12. Reports from every city and town in America tell us that the number of individual buyers of extra War Bonds today has reached an unprecedented total. We all know that in addition to numbers we need fire power. Your extra War Bond is absolutely essential. The greater the stockpile of War Bonds, the easier it will be for us to get this war over.

This very moment our boys are waging a life-and-death struggle. Every additional War Bond you buy will play its part in the outcome. Last month's War Bond, last week's War Bond, yesterday's War Bond are already in the embattled foxholes. Today is another day for the home front just as today is another day for the boys on the battlefronts.

AMERICAN HEROES

Two New York Boys, one from the lower East Side, one from the Bronx, have been awarded the Soldiers' Medal for saving eight crew members of a burning bomber at Port Moresby, Papua. Disregarding the dangers of exploding bombs, ammunition, and gasoline, Cpl. Anthony J. Lobritto, Manhattan, and Pfc. Irving Leibhaber, the Bronx, rushed to the crashed bomber. It's up to us to buy War Bonds and hold 'em.

U. S. Treasury Department

Major Lyle J. Defenbaugh, Infantry, of Omaha, earned his Silver Star for gallantry in action in Tunisia. Under heavy machine gun fire aimed directly at his position, which silenced the radio, he disregarded all personal safety, and remained in full view of the enemy within close range to shout directions and orders to two of his companies. Our praise for his heroism is not enough, we must buy War Bonds and hold 'em.

The battle for the World is on!

NOW THAT the chips are down . . . now that our men are writing decisive history with their blood . . .

There can be no halfway measures for us.

The greatest battle in the history of the world must be matched by the greatest war loan in the history of the world.

That's what Uncle Sam says . . . the same Uncle Sam for whom your brothers and sweethearts and husbands are fighting and dying this very minute.

They, in the front lines, are throwing in everything they have.

We, behind the lines, must do the same.

Remember, this is the battle for the WORLD. Our world. And we've got to win it. That's why Uncle Sam expects every dollar, like every soldier, to do its duty.

Put this Fifth War Loan over . . . buy more War Bonds than you think you can!

Pfc. William C. Kelly, of Silver Spring, Maryland, was on observation post duty for his front line regiment in Italy. He spotted German mortar and machine gun emplacements, reporting to artillery observer to direct fire. Hastily he advised the CP with compass directions in place of artillery technical data. A third round hit squarely on the enemy. We must buy War Bonds and hold 'em with the same constant eye on the enemy.

George Sylvester Cronk, Second Assistant Engineer, Merchant Marine, was the sole surviving officer of a shattered ship. In the only lifeboat that could be launched he succeeded in rescuing 19 survivors in the stormy seas. Cronk brought his boat safely to land after 31 days. ## BLOOD.

Yours is written on every Bond you buy in the 5TH WAR LOAN!

THE stepping stones to victory are red with blood of American heroes. Tarawa . . . Salerno . . . Cassino. Their patriotism is written in blood.

Your patriotism is written on every Bond you buy in this vital 5th War Loan. Your name on a War Bond means you're behind our invasion troops.

Help hasten the day of Victory by investing in extra War

Bonds now. Invest in more than you've ever purchased before. Invest $100, $200, $300, $400. Those who can, must invest thousands of dollars.

For this is the biggest job we've ever had to do. We can't fail our fighting men as they plunge into the biggest and bloodiest struggle of all.

WELCOME THE VICTORY VOLUNTEERS when they call to tell you about War Bonds

To the People of this Community

There are many urgent reasons for buying War Bonds. First, the invasion needs money. Bonds pay for planes and guns and munitions with which to beat the Axis. Our fighting men must have the best possible equipment and it is up to us to let our money provide this.

A second reason is this: There is a shortage of goods now. Later on there will be plenty for civilian desires. Money put into War Bonds now will be available then. Business opportunities will be open then, too, and the "nest egg" saved now may hatch out commercially then.

Money put into War Bonds now will be deprived of its current potentiality as a part of the causes of inflation. You will be doing your part toward stabilizing the money situation by buying Bonds instead of dwindling stocks. That is a third reason.

But the best reason from a selfish viewpoint is this: Right now there is no better investment than War Bonds. There is no safer repository for your money. By buying Bonds you become a stockholder in the strongest "going" concern in the world today, the United States of America.

DON WINSLOW SAYS.

LET'S BUY 5TH WAR LOAN BONDS TO BOMB THE ENEMY, AND GIVE BALM TO OUR FIGHTING MEN!

DRIVE IT HOME!

"That's the way I like to see them," said Gen. MacArthur when he saw the rows of dead Japs in the Admiralty Islands. In this war—the costliest, cruelest war of all time—our boys must fight with savage fury. Kill or be killed! And on how well each plays his part depends the lives of many of his buddies.

Here on the home front, too, just cheering the attack on isn't enough.

That's why there's a Fifth War Bond drive on now, a drive in which you're needed to support the men on the fighting fronts who are facing the most treacherous forces Americans have ever met in combat. We on the home front can't let them down—and we won't. So resolve now to at least double your bond buying in the 5th War Loan drive. This is the time to do better than your best.
